Our Mission

The Centre County Child Access Center promotes the physical and emotional security of children and their parents by providing a safe and supportive environment for monitored custody exchanges and supervised visitation.

We are committed to enhancing the safety of parent and child victims of family violence in an environment that fosters safe and healthy interactions between children and their families.

How does it work?

Referrals for the Child Access Center can come from the courts, agencies or parents themselves. Monitored Custody Exchanges will not begin until both parents have completed the orientation process and are approved to access services at the Child Access Center. During custody exchanges, parents have no onsite contact. Parents utilize separate entrances and staggered arrival times in order to make exchanges as safe as possible.

When do exchanges take place?

Exchanges are scheduled based on the court order or custody order. The Child Access Center staff will determine the time of the exchanges based on the court order and availability. The Child Access Center is currently open to facilitate exchanges:

Wednesdays—3:30 pm—8:30 pm

Fridays and Sundays—4:00 pm—7:00 pm

Where do exchanges take place?

All exchanges occur at the former Bellefonte Family Resource Center which is located at 310 North Allegheny Street in Bellefonte.

The Child Access Center is child friendly. We provide a comfortable and supportive place for children and their families.
